This year every bit of dope is in favor of the State Teachers. They tied the Friends' university team, which later on in the season defeated Washburn 25 to 9, and even Coach Kennedy admits that a team that could held the Aggles and Jayhawkers to two touchdowns early in the season must have more strength than his organization. In fact, Doctor Kennedy places so much reliability in the dope furnished by the K. U. Normal and Aggie-Normal games that he says if his men can lick the Normals they ought to come thru with a victory when they meet the Jayhawkers and Wildcats. However, he is not banking very strongly on any of these games.

THE GOOD JUDGE SETTLES A MISUNDERSTANDING

THE DAW THAT SAYS WE COME OFF. THE REAL TORACTORACTO CHEW CHEWSO PORE Y

Despite the fact that the athletic nuthorities are holding out little hope of victory when the Ichabods invade the gridiron of the Emporia Normals Friday afternoon, the student body at Washburn is preparing to go to the game en masse and plains have practically been completed for the chartering of a special train to carry the large crowd that will go.

Students at the college hold this game to be more important than any that will be played because the state title is at stake and the Rooters' club is seeing to it that Captain Stewart's men will be given encouragement by the presence of a large home town crowd. The college band will also be taken and many downtown supporters of the team plan to make the trip.

Close Last Year.

Last season the game was played in Topeka. The Normals got an early lead and held it until the last quarter when Elmer Bearg finally went over for the tying touchdown with only a few minutes left to play. Captain Beals kicked the goal that cinched the tie.

With Simmons and Pearson both of his star backfield men, out of the game, Dr. Banbury, Friends I niversity coach, is busy that week reorganizing his Quaker team and trying to get it into shape for the Haskell game. Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 1.—The University of Nebraska will not accept any of the Veltage of the play a post-season football game with an eastern or any other team, according to Athletic Director Reed today in refusing a proposal made by Walter E. Hapgood, business manager of the Boston Braves.

Hapgood proposed that Nebraska star forbid more than eight games a year, will also forbids games on other than college fields.

Washburn has a good man in Sargent, but since Baker had to quit the squad the Irhabods have been plugging along with no attention to a second string man to take the place of "Church" if he should for ny reason be forced to quit a game.

Probably the best quarter in the state is possessed by the Emporia Normals. He is one of the many Cutlers who have helped to make athletic history in the Bill Allen White-Bill Hargiss metropolis.

Hays Normal has a good man in Felts, who is reported to be running his team in great style, and the Fairmount Wheatshockers bank big on Haun, but neither of these men has shown all-state class so far.

THAT THEY DON'T MEET

If football schedules were made for the benefit of the public and not to suit some college professors, what fine sport we would see. It seems a pity that Howard Berry, of Pennsylvania: Oliphant, of the Army, and Harry Le Goore, of Yale, will not meet this year, so that a direct comparison could be had of their respective merits.
